

Holidays in Old Town

Schedule of Events:

10:00-4:00
Home Tour

Entertainment at Lebanon Church at Heritage Center

11:00-12:00

- Staley Middle School Orchestra
- Staley Middle School Chamber Ensemble

12:00-1:00

- Staley Middle School Choir
- Griffin Middle School Choir

1:00-3:00

- Frisco Senior Center Choir
"The Golden Notes"

Main Street Events:

- Horse Hardware: Share the Luck (2:00-4:00)
- Jump, Jive, & Wail: Make Mad Hatter hat
- Ski Frisco Sports: Cards for the troops
- Randy's Steakhouse: Hot Chocolate
- The Frisco Garden Club: Make a bird feeder
- Voyager Insurance: Pictures with Santa
- Frisco Automotive: Vintage Car Show
- Visual Arts Guild: Art Show
- Raising the Barre: Gingerbread Houses
- Frisco Family Services: Reindeer Food
- Ed Forster State Farm Insurance: Face Painting
- Blue Door Boutique: Cookie Decorating

Saturday, December 13, 2008

Presented by:

Main Street Merchants & Heritage Association of Frisco

The Heritage Association of Frisco will be hosting the 2008 Home Tour, which features 5 privately owned homes decorated for the holidays. The Lebanon Church and the Frisco Train Depot in Heritage Center will be featured as part of the tour. Dessert will be provided by Babe's at the Depot.

The Main Street Merchants will be open during regular business hours for customers to purchase Christmas gifts. While shopping, there will also be fun and games down Main Street. Enjoy decorating cards for the troops, browsing the classic car show, making a Mad Hatter hat, visiting with Santa, and much more!!

*Tickets are $10
at the following locations:*

Extravagant Necessities: 1701 Legacy Drive, Frisco

Blue Door Boutique: 6975 Main Street, Frisco

Frisco Automotive: 6623 Main Street, Frisco

Frisco Heritage Museum: 6455 Page Street, Frisco

Heritage Association of Frisco website: www.friscoheritage.org

Tickets may be purchased the day of the tour at any of the featured homes

